Campes, Dec. 10th 1881

I have just received your dear letter of the 29th - You may well imagine the distress and deep sorrow I felt in reading of the sufferings of your Mother. I most warmly thank you and your dear Husband for the kindly and timely care you bestowed on her. I now thank God Almighty for having restored her to health, and humbly pray Him to keep her so for the future.
Were it not for the assurance that both you and your Husband give me that you will return it coming well, I should return at once to you. I am very glad to hear that she is to stay with you until my return, where could we find the love of a daughter but at your house. God bless you, my child, and may God Almighty bless every happy, long and prosperous life with your dear and affectionate husband, to whom we feel every day more attached.
